Most schoolchildren dream quickly graduate from school and become a student. After all, this school is so tired, and a completely different free life will begin at the university, where there will be no teachers with their endless amount of homework. Learned your thoughts? Therefore, we decided to figure it out, whether it is cool to be a student in our days and why it is so. Pink glasses with future students

No matter how much I wanted to get rid of school teachers with endless requirements and tasks, at the Institute, students dream that these lectures, seminars, tasks, coursework and sessions cease to exist. The load becomes sometimes more school, and so I want to relax with friends, sleep or have to start earning yourself and ensure yourself. And the fear of getting a debt and be deducted from the university and hangs on top.

But you should not immediately say goodbye because of this with education. Studentials has many advantages with which we are now and introducing you. # 1 a lot of new acquaintances

It is at the university that you find special friends who are no longer anywhere else. Yes, there is friendship from Nity or from school, but student friendship is perceived completely differently. # 2 new cool skills

Student years teach each student, how to communicate with people, negotiate and get the right one. Also additionally you can visit courses where you can master a new language, participate in KVN or try yourself in some sport. # 3 discounts and benefits

Well, isn't it a pleasant bonus? If you love to travel, then take advantage of a discount from Russian Railways to travel in coupling cars in Russia or by train.

Also, the entrance to some country museums becomes completely free of well or with a very pleasant discount. For example, Hermitage Anyone who wants a student can visit freely, of course, if there is an existing student ticket. More information about benefits can be found in our article. # 4 scholarship

She is also sleeved, verse or stealing. The income that the student receives fiscal places in the university receives. Usually this amount is not very large, but its size may vary depending on your estimates, participation in sports events and other factors. If you remember, no one paid for visiting school. # 5 acquaintance with his fantasy

In all studies at the university, hidden talents are opened in us, thanks to which you can invent various cribs and other ways to write off. These methods are transmitted from generation to generation. You can already make a whole encyclopedia of ingenuity. # 6 cheerful weekends and not only

Student life is rich in parties, regardless of the day of the week. Even if in the morning to go early on the pair or to work. The most inventive can sleep even at study. # 7 SKS or social student card

Unfortunately, it is not available in all cities. Previously, she only gave the right of a preferential passage. Nowadays, it gives a number of advantages: additional discounts and shares of various stores; bank payments and translations; registration of a record for a doctor; pass to your training building or hostel. # 8 Internship, which can be the future work

Students - a great time to try yourself at different places of work in your profession. You can get experience during the passage of training practice, which will come in handy in the future. And if you like the authorities, you can get their contacts or even a full-fledged workplace.

In addition, you can visit internships in other countries, for example, the exchange. You will get valuable experience in communicating with foreign language carriers and learn to adapt in the new team. It will become a big plus in your resume. # 9 extracurricular activity

You can find new skills when working at the Student Council of the Faculty or even university itself. Then in the column of a resume about your skills you will be able to write: Experience in organizing events, managing teamwork or assistance to the authorities. There are some more options for such activities: editor of a student newspaper, participation in sports competitions, musical concerts, and so on.

Being a student is very interesting and cool. The main thing is to be able to combine useful and pleasant, because it is accurately useful to you in the future.

Good luck, friends!
